

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The three banks of Pendleton carry a million dollars of deposits.

The net earnings of the late Portland exposition amount to nearly $10,000.

Conterfeit five and ten dollar bills are being circulated in Portland.

Mr. W. A. Hunt and family of Buffalo, N. Y., have arrived in The Dalles, where they intend to make their future home.

It is said that the Columbia river at this place raised two feet Friday night. There must have been heavy rains further east.

A very heavy shower fell Friday night some time after midnight, lasting only about twenty minutes, but very heavy while it lasted.

A man named D. F. Snyder brought into Pendleton the other day a gold nugget which weighed out $3.55. It was found at the Susanville placer mines.

Mays and Crowe have commenced to move into their new store and as the goods are being moved out of the shelves of the old store, Mr. I. C. Nickelson is filling them up with a new stock of stationary and notions.

Mr. Peter Mohr of Hood River came up last Thursday on the Regulator. Mr. Mohr is one of the most successful fruit raisers in the Hood River valley.

He took no less than thirty-two prizes for fruits at the last agricultural fair—twenty-one first prizes, eight second, and three sweepstakes.

A gentleman of this county whose finances were reduced to a lone fifty cent piece went down to Portland on the Baker Friday. He called at the office yesterday and explained the situation to the writer and requested that his name be not mentioned, assuring us that no condition other than absolute necessity could induce him to do as he has done.

The county court Thursday afternoon appointed Vernon Roberts of Sheras Bridge to the office of stock inspector. Mr. Roberts is a gentleman in every way qualified for the office, and is a man of excellent ability and habits.

The writer speaks thus of his own personal knowledge. We may have our own likes and preferences but the county could not have made a better appointment.

Here is a witty comment by the Newberg Graphic: What with the discussion between Drs. Rowland and Lane relative to the age and general all-round effectiveness of the insane asylum bed bugs, and Messrs Clark and Varney's little tilt over the San Jose scale business, one is led to think that Oregon may soon be taken by "varments" of one kind or another, and the ready public will be well prepared for the campaign of '92.

THE CHRONICLE office is indebted to the kindness of Major G. W. Ingalls for the present of an exceedingly handsome photographic picture of the Wasco county fruit exhibit at the late Portland exposition. It will be remembered that Wasco county took the first prize at the exposition, over the whole Northwest, for the best exhibit of fruits.

The picture is a magnificent representation of the exhibit, and after we have put it in a handsome setting it will adorn the show window of the CHRONICLE office and be the pride and admiration of every citizen of grand old Wasco county.

It is the general opinion and experience of Dalles business men that they have never known a time when more business was being transacted in this city than there is at present, and every thing indicates prosperous times ahead.

Dr. Siddall, who has traveled extensively over the towns and cities of the northwest during the past summer, says he does not know of a town anywhere where business of any kind is more prosperous than it is here.

He believes that out of the ashes and debris of our late fire a city will arise more beautiful, more populous and more prosperous than the old, and in this opinion the majority of our citizens fully share.

Noticing a broad smile on the genial countenance of our popular dentist Dr. D. Siddall, Thursday afternoon, the CHRONICLE man ventured to ask "What's up doctor?" "What's up! Why everything. I have been waiting anxiously ever since the fire to see how the political cat would hop, afraid to invest a dollar for fear the country might possibly adopt a principle that would drive it to the dogs, but now that McKinley is elected in Ohio and the country is safe I am going to erect two fine residence houses in this city, fitted up with every modern improvement, because I believe we are going to see an era of prosperous times such as the United States never experienced in all her past history," and the scribe reverently murmured "Amen" and continued to pursue the "delusive" item.

Major Ingalls, arrived in The Dalles on the noon passenger today. He has started out on his work of raising subscriptions for the Oregon exhibit at the world's fair under the auspices of the Oregon State Board of Commerce, and the Major will work hard through the proverbial incrustations of a nose about as successfully as the man in the state. It is characteristic of his energy to say that he was not an hour in The Dalles till he had obtained pledges for nearly $400. The Major goes up tonight to La Grande where he has arranged to meet a committee just about to start for the great meeting convention to be held in Denver in a few days. The committee has promised the Major a liberal subscription. He will return to finish his work at The Dalles about next Monday. A committee from Alliance No. 1 of Eight Mile has obtained a promise from the Major for an address to be given at the residence of J. A. Keely of Dry Hollow on Saturday the 14th instant. The address will deal largely with the subject "Lessons derived from the Wasco county Horticultural Exhibit at the late Portland Exposition."

A party of surveyors numbering about fourteen persons crossed the river Saturday morning. They were fully equipped with a complete camping outfit and supplies. It is their intention to complete the survey of the portage road on the Condon, in Gilliam county, wants an attorney and a furniture store.

State Senator Blackman passed through the city Monday on the noon passenger.

Internal revenue reports show that Montana has a saloon for every sixty inhabitants.

The Baker City Blade urges the organization of a committee for the driving of thieves tinhorus pick-pockets and thugs" out of the city.

Robert Bradley of Boyd has traded his ranch on Union Hollow for a ranch in Benton county, formerly owned by William Bennett of Ten Mile.

Mr. I. Humason and wife, Miss E. Humason, and Dr. W. H. Wells came on the Regulator Saturday evening to visit friends in the city and returned by the same way Monday morning.

The lot has fallen on the following persons to act as grand jurors: R. R. Hinton, foreman; E. L. Boynton, clerk; John Henriksen; E. L. Craft; Frank Graves; Henry Hillgen; and Clay Butler.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mattie E. Mitchell, daughter of Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, to the Duke Francois de la Rochetoncaud of France. The date of the marriage has not yet been announced but it will be celebrated soon.

In conversation with Mr. R. Spencer of Morrow county today we learned that the old ranch of 200 acres of agricultural land in Gilliam county, formerly the property of C. L. Richmond of this city produced this year an average of 30 bushels of wheat to the acre. Charley is sorry that he is not a farmer this year.

An election for mayor and councilmen for Baker City took place a few days ago. Last Thursday the old council met for the last time and just before adjourning sine die they voted themselves a salary of $60 each for services during the past year. It was proposed to make it $100 but the sixty-dollar notion prevailed. Queer fellows those Baker City fathers.

Eight of the nine prisoners in the county jail were put under the hands of Barber Nicholas Monday and had their hair cut and faces shaved preparatory to their appearance before the circuit court. The ninth is a Chinaman and his case is left to the tender mercies of the janitor, John Fitzgerald, who is said to be the only white man in the city who can shave a Chinaman in the correct Chinese tonsorial style.

About dark Sunday evening a track walker named Peter Peterson was knocked off a bridge below Hood River, by a passing train and sustained injuries by which he died a few hours after. The man fell a distance of sixty feet and when the company's physician, Dr. Doan, arrived he found his "ribs and back mashed in." Peterson was placed on the next train to be taken to the Portland hospital but he died on the way.

James Darnelle of Dufur sold his wheat Saturday. He was bound it should be shipped by the Regulator and made an agreement with the buyer that he could not have it unless it were so shipped. He has no doubt he could have got more for his wheat from other parties but he said to the writer: "If the Regulator were not on the river I would not be getting more than about sixty-five cents, so I'm still ahead, even if I did sell it at a little loss."

Here's the way the Baker City Democrat touches off its evening "contemporary. It is just such gems of literature that makes newspaper work endurable in the far west: "The licentious old reprobate, irregular practitioner and general all round two-legged piece of irresponsibility that is undertaking to palm himself off as an editor, continues his old game of lying in the face of the truth, but it profits him nothing. If the people were not so well acquainted with him his practices might have some weight."

John Anthony late in the employ of August Buehler, now in the confectionary business at La Grande, came down on the passenger this morning. Mr. Anthony is well pleased with his new home and with his success in business, but very naturally he has a soft spot in his heart for The Dalles. Just how long it may remain soft it is hard to tell. The fact is there is going to be a wedding held at the brewery next Thursday evening in which John will figure as chief mourner and after that it is conjectural what may happen. We hope, however, that during all his future life he may be able to look back and say that The Dalles is the best place in the world because it furnished him the best wife in the world. The name of the future Mrs. Anthony is Miss Mattie Eichenberger, and the CHRONICLE devoutly wishes her and her intended husband many happy days.

In this city, last Friday, Mrs. Mary Case, wife of Mr. J. P. Case, aged about twenty-four years. Mrs. Case arrived in this city about three weeks ago in company with her husband who is a brakeman for the Union Pacific. Last Monday she gave birth to a girl baby, which survives her, and which is now in the care of Dr. Rhinehart. The remains were embalmed by Crandall & Burgett and taken by Mr. Case to her old home in Norfolk, Nebraska, on the Saturday night train.

On Thursday, November 5, 1891, at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Murray, of this city, Mrs. R. Guise, aged 20 years. Mrs. Guise died of that fell disease consumption. She leaves a husband and one child about a year old. The funeral took place from Mrs. Murray's residence this afternoon and was conducted by Rev. A. C. Spencer.

The Bank robbery of Sammersville. The dispatches have already told us of the robbery of the Sammersville bank on the night of the 3d inst. It may not be generally known here that the robbed in fact Dr. Rhinehart himself has a fourth interest in the concern. A private letter to the doctor from his brother contains the following account of the robbery:

I returned to the office last night about 7 o'clock to do some work and a little after 8 I returned home. After blowing out the lights I started out the front door and just as I opened it, two masked men presented pistols at me and forced me into the bank. I came near forcing them out, had the door almost shut but they overpowered me. During the time I made one good yell, and the saloon door was open but they thought it was some boy and paid no attention to me. I was forced at the muzzle of the gun to open the vault and deliver over the cash. They got away with $7775.80. How is that? We will make a clear search for them in a couple of hours and hope to be able to do something.

Yours truly,
H. C. REINHART.

UNION PACIFIC BUYING WHEAT. Superintendent Farley of the State Portage Retardates His Statements.

G. J. Farley, of The Dalles, superintendent of the Cascades portage railroad, was in Portland yesterday, and expressed himself freely about the government line.

"We continue to handle the bulk of the passenger business, though our rate is still $2.00," he said, "against theirs of 50 cents. Moody is buying most of the wheat at within 2 cents of the Portland price, though the freight is 10 to 25 cents a bushel from Dalles City to Portland. Of course, there must be a heavy cut in rates, though I am still of the decided opinion that the company is buying the wheat for itself. I know it is claimed that the Union Pacific has no money to spare for such a purpose, but it doesn't take much money. You see, they can realize on it at once when the wheat reaches here. The way they do is to ferry Moody's wheat across the river at Dalles City, then load it onto cars and bring it down to Portland.

"There is no doubt, in my opinion, of the entire success of the government line, in spite of the company's opposition and of almost all the other lines running at a loss for years, and of course are doing worse now. They cannot keep it up except at very great loss. So far as freight business is concerned, the opposition boats are owned by Dalles City merchants, and they will continue to ship their freight by their own boats. The expense of operating the portage road is not over $500 a month, and is simply covered by the traffic. The boat service up yesterday had the freight that could be put aboard her.

"The Union Pacific boats get very little passenger business from Dalles City. They sell good many tickets from Pendleton, Baker, La Grande and Huntington to Dalles City. Here the passengers get off, and ride to Portland on the boat for 50 cents. The fare by rail from Dalles City down is $3.55, so that by this arrangement the company loses $6.10 on every round trip passenger."—Oregonian.

Unnecessary Sufferings. There is little doubt but that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact:

My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world. P. M. Boston, Pennville, Sullivan Co., Missouri. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, Druggists.

A Coroner's Verdict. A coroner out west recently reasoned out a verdict more sensible than one-half the verdicts usually rendered. It appears that an Irishman, conceiving that a little powder thrown upon some green wood would facilitate its burning, directed a small stream of powder from a keg upon the burning stick; but not possessing a hand sufficiently quick to cut this off, was blown into a million pieces. The following was the verdict, delivered with great gravity by the official:

"Can't be called suicide, because he didn't mean to kill himself; it wasn't 'visitation of God' because he wasn't struck by lightning; he didn't die for want of breath for he hadn't anything to breathe with; it's plain he didn't know what he was about, so I shall bring in—Died for want of common sense."

There is None Better. Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. Saved from Death by Ointment. Dr. Gunn's Ointment is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which, make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the ointment. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
